STORIES TO BUILD WELCOMING SCHOOLS

How welcoming is your school? Are you looking for fun and thought-provoking ways to celebrate difference and diversity? Professional storyteller and teacher Michael Jones performs two hilarious interactive story sessions for children of primary school age. Follow-up workshops provide opportunities for children to discuss important issues, and build foundations for a more inclusive school.

“Bill Bailey meets Basil Brush!”
“Seriously funny”
“Almost as funny as Homer Simpson!”

“A great message, put over powerfully”
“I have absolutely understood racism and bullying”
“Your jokes are laughable”

Stories include:

● “Watch out for the Badgers”
A tale of hostility towards newcomers in a block of flats, and how the Badger family sort things out. Ideal for children aged 5 to 11 years.

● “Frog and the Stranger” Somebody ‘different’ is seen on the edge of the village. Rooster tells Frog to steer clear, but Frog has his own ideas.... Based on the story by Max Velthuijs, published by Andersen Press. For children 7 to 11 years.
